Autor: Hana Kulhánková

We watched the video about our Velvet revolution. We are proud of students, who opposed the communist regime. The 17th November have always been very difficult in our history. Germans closed our universities during the World War II. Students protested against communists in 1989.

It wasn't easy. Students and actors began to strike. The end of communist regime in Czechoslovakia was evident.

After 40 years of communism Czechs obtained a freedom. The 17th November is every year celebrated like the Day of the fight for a freedom.

We're glad, that we can live in democratic state.
